DR. J. C. YOUNG,

edical and Surgical

INSTITUTE.

. CONSULTATIONS IN ALL CASES, FREE

. CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED

. IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED

The above rules, established y Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, nd which have done so much o secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, ffording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of ure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and Route treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success th has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and care of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

am aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a subject as the way of manly vigor through the loss of the vital fluids of life, the ignorant may asperse my motives, but the [illegible] to point out to those who suffer, by mistake and folly, the true cause of their affliction, [illegible] to be forced into abeyance. [illegible] ted the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness [illegible] but the practical specialist who devotes his time [illegible] I can tell, but its presence can be det[ected] by the most inexperienced by noting the following symptoms; W[eakness] of the back and limbs, [illegible] loss of muscular power, nervousness [illegible] feet or hands, accompanied by hot head; [illegible] short breath, flushings of the face [illegible] fail[ure] of the mind, loss of [illegible] [illegible] gloriless; slight discharges upon the [illegible] trembling, palpitation of the heart [illegible] variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the symptoms [illegible] [illegible] ated above, pause to consider, [illegible] [illegible] is the advice [illegible] in which you may [illegible] You may feel strong now, but [illegible] have ever [illegible] the vice of self-abuse even in the [illegible] you have the seeds of weakness [illegible] and their [illegible] mining influence will, sooner or later, dash the fair edifice of your strength to the ground, [illegible] you a helpless, abject being. It is also [illegible] that [illegible] itself at once. Therein lies the [illegible] for while the patient is being treated for some affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Digestive [organs], he sinks into a general debility that soon adds [illegible] the list of the victims of the terrible disorder.

[illegible] in the best form and languishing steps, the [illegible] victim of the [illegible] vice [illegible] Mark the course of the [illegible] in the [illegible] back and dull [illegible] is one of the [illegible] story symptoms [illegible] it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually into [illegible] disinclination to pursue his regular [illegible] and [illegible] and restless nights [illegible]

It is the nature of the complaint to assume [illegible] stages that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single [illegible] it may wither your [illegible] and blast your dearest aspirations.

[illegible] is sought by a natural impulse as a hope of [illegible] This is an error of the first magnitude for the [illegible] [illegible] for the exigencies of the [illegible] [illegible] fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable [illegible] which there is but the slightest hope of [illegible] the [illegible] should result in offspring, they are [illegible] [illegible] dead, decrepid, and degenerate. This is [illegible] to both sexes, whether married or single, and to [illegible] of life.

[illegible] if you feel any of the symptoms of the [illegible] or if your acts have been such as to [illegible] but by [illegible] application secure to you [illegible] hope of health and happiness. The Doctor uses [illegible] mercury or other deleterious drugs—cures, a [illegible] always guaranteed, and full and proper [illegible] [illegible] are assured of every confidence.

ring the seventeen years since the establishment [of this] Institute, the number of cases of Venereal that have [been] treated, show a record unsurpassed by any [illegible] world, and the success that has invariably marked course of treatment, thout Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

[illegible] lively the use of them to be not only [illegible] for, but actually dangerous, for it is a [illegible] lished medical principle that those poisonous drugs entering the blood, ruin the constitution and destroy [illegible]

e Doctor effects a cure in recent cases in a few days, finds no difficulty in curing those of long duration, out submitting the patient to such treatment as will upon him the slightest suspicion or oblige him to [illegible] his business, whether in-doors or without [illegible] need not be changed. Cures always guaranteed. [illegible]

n a female is in trouble or afflicted with [illegible] [illegible] medical or surgical assistance the inquiry should [illegible] Where is there a physician competent to [illegible] and whose respectable standing in society will [illegible] [illegible] him to the confidence of the community?" [illegible] [illegible] Notwithstanding how imperatively necessary [illegible] [illegible] ments are, feels called upon to interpose, and [illegible] the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he [illegible] Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for [illegible] s, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases [medi]cally and surgically not in a superficial [illegible] [illegible] thorough a manner as years of study and practice in hospitals and private families—can make, [illegible] from the hands of the unqualified unscrupulous [illegible] ng. Therefore, families can rely upon him as [illegible] All in affliction can find in him one who can [sym]pathize with and befriend them in trouble [illegible] secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed [illegible] ation by letter or otherwise free. Cures [illegible] all weakness and trouble incidental to the sex. [illegible] apartments are provided when desired where [illegible] all the advantages of unremitted attention of the [illegible] and the most skillful and faithful nurses.

[illegible] Persons either male or female [illegible] in the interior are often deterred from [illegible] [illegible] or because they cannot spare the time, nor [illegible] [illegible] ense of a visit to the city. To such he would [illegible] [illegible] lain statement of the symptoms and [illegible] [illegible] upon the complaint will enable him to [illegible] so that they can be cured at home. [illegible] [illegible] false delicacy about writing no matter what [illegible] [illegible] their complaint as the communication will [illegible] no one except the Doctor and will be treated with [illegible] confidence and either be returned or destroyed consultation Free.

Letter From the State Capital

SALEM, September 1, 1868.

The Capital is full of life and business in anticipation of the assembling of the Legislature. Secretary May, with his characteristic good taste and promptitude in the discharge of official duties, has about completed the work of preparing the Hall [illegible] Chamber and Committee rooms for the reception of the Honorable gentlemen whom the people have chosen as their representatives to deliberate upon the affairs of the State. Every thing about the Capitol building is as neat as the most fastidious connoisseur could desire, yet all [illegible] with a strict adherence to economy [illegible] the judgment of the Secretary. The State officers are preparing their reports with perspicuity and in detail, that the Legislature may be enabled critically and thoroughly investigate the financial and other material interests of the State. The public will soon be made aware of the malicious character of the charges of peculation and reckless extravagance so persistently made against the present State officials by the Herald and its malevolent correspondent.

"RALEIGH."

A slight reference to this nameless libeler may not be without public interest, and as he seems to admire innuendo and insinuations, it will certainly not be unfair to employ his own weapons to rend the veil which screens him from public scrutiny. The cause of his infamous spite toward State Treasurer Cooke and his son-in-law, Mr Patton, is easily explained. Besides the usual venom of malignant Copperheads toward Union men, Raleigh entertains a special animosity towards those [illegible] Being a capitalist and having a [illegible] practice for sharp practice in his financial transactions, he naturally hates all who stand in the way of his inordinate lust for gold. Avarice is his ruling passion and he cherishes no friendly sentiment for any man after he learns that he cannot prostitute him in the furtherance of his own schemes for the accumulation of lucre. A prominent Democratic politician, some years ago, very accurately described him as a man whose constant cry was more money, more blood, more money, more blood. He has invariably been a [illegible] When the State Treasurer has in accordance with law, advertised for the redemption of soldiers bounty bonds. It is said that he [illegible] a greater amount of those bonds than any other man in the State and the rare [illegible] he manifested in their purchase is worthy of note.

[When] the Legislature granted bounties to [the] Oregon volunteers, several companies were [mustered] at Fort Vancouver, while others were [illegible] at different points in the State. Raleigh was at that time an [illegible] writer for the [illegible] and exercised his eminent legal and literary ability to convince the soldiers that the law granting them bounties was unconstitutional and their bonds therefore worthless. While thus engaged it is reported that he had agents among them purchasing their bonds at ruinously low figures. Although he has in this way secured a large amount of bonds at less than their [illegible] soldiers, his bids, when the State has proposed to redeem them, are [illegible] higher than others, and he generally fails to dispose of his bonds and pocket the State's money. On one or two occasions, Mr Patton [illegible] being the lowest, he has disposed of considerable amounts of bonds which he paid from ten to thirty per cent more for than Raleigh [illegible] those he offered. Being unconscious of an honest impulse, and judging from his own manner of dealing with men, Raleigh naturally inferred that because Mr Patton was son-in-law to the State Treasurer, something must be wrong. But enough of this anonymous slanderer. His efforts, however venomed they may be, will fall harmless when aimed at the character of those whom he so maliciously assails. There is but little being said about POLITICS.

Intelligent Democrats generally concede the election of Grant and Colfax, but congratulate themselves upon their expectation of carrying the State. In this county the Union majority will far exceed, in November, that given in June for the [illegible] ticket. If other parts of the State do as well as Marion there [illegible] increasing the Union vote, Oregon will be redeemed. The Democrats are disgusted with their candidates. Blair is particularly obnoxious to the Simon pures. But little money will be spent by leading Democrats here for political purposes during the coming campaign. An amusing colloquy was overheard, among a number of Democrats, the other day, illustrating their determination not to come out to assist in carrying the State for Seymour and Blair. It seems that Bill Watkins was the "responsible" man in the purchase of edibles and for other expenses for the late Democratic barbecue. At the time referred to, Bill and two other prominent Democrats, Messrs Holman and Westacott, were discussing means to raise money to pay a balance due on the bill of expenses incurred as aforesaid. Bill claimed that he was held responsible and wanted the other two to come down with a part of the cash. Holman declined and Westacott swore he had paid his last cent, and in electing a d—d Abolition soldier Vice President. Bill became exasperated and swore that he had always had to foot more than his share of the bills on such occasions, while such men as Grover, who promised to give twenty barrels of flour for the late barbecue, but failed to fulfill his promise, did not scruple to repudiate. [illegible] that "repudiation" is the main plank in the Democratic platform and seems old enough [illegible] that such men as Grover merely use him as a striker.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Business is becoming more lively since the farmers have begun marketing and storing their grain. The chief purchasers in town are the Willamette Milling Company and David McCully. The ruling price for wheat is sixty cents, but farmers are generally storing. Oats are selling at sixty cents but the price is declining.

The next term of study at Willamette University will commence a week from next Monday under the direction of the lately appointed President, Dr. [illegible] and an almost entire new corps of assistants. The people are very favorably impressed with the Doctor's well attested ability [illegible] [illegible] such an eminent educational establishment [illegible] the management of the university [illegible] [illegible] greatly improved.

The atmosphere to-day is as smoky as though Vulcan had all his forges in full blast in the immediate neighborhood of the CAPITAL.

The Louisville Journal says: "What sort of Republicanism is that which would honor Generals [illegible] Sheridan, and Meade, and [illegible] General Forrest and Hampton? Forrest is as [illegible] as Sheridan, and a better cavalryman [illegible] will pretend to say that Hampton is [illegible] virtues or accomplishments [illegible] Thomas. Hampton, Forrest and Lee are accepted [illegible] Democratic party. We are proud of [illegible] and we present them with confidence [illegible] the [illegible] North, and we say Here are [illegible] They are worth all the carpet-baggers [illegible] tax collectors and [illegible] and greasy contractors and [illegible] holders that a corrupt Congress can [illegible] this and doomsday."

Seymour has the impudence to present himself for the suffrages of loyal soldiers. On the 23d of April, 1863, Seymour vetoed the bill giving the New York soldiers the right to vote. It is this man who denied to soldiers the right of suffrage because they had left their homes to fight the cause of the country, who now asks them to make him President, in order that he, acting in conjunction with Southern rebels, may undo the work which they accomplished with so much sacrifice of blood and treasure.

One of the features of the Democratic parade in the streets of Nashville, Saturday evening, was a man on horseback carrying a very small striped [illegible] It was," says the Republican, "[illegible] a representation true to life [illegible] [illegible] rebels as they returned [illegible] from [illegible] with nothing but their [illegible] in a small carpet bag, [illegible] and a [illegible]"

It is expected that if Seymour and Blair be elected, A. Oakey Hall will be appointed Minister to England to settle the Alabama claims.

EASTERN NEWS

By Overland Mail—Dates to Aug. 17th

By overland mail we have Eastern news to August 17th. We present the following summary:

THE NEW YORK DEMOCRACY AND THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Notwithstanding the attempt to conceal the negotiations which the New York Democrats have been carrying on with the President since Seymour's nomination, some of their advertisements at the White House have come to light. [illegible] the first gentleman who called on him shortly after the convention adjourned he [illegible] report telling them he had put their party on its feet and in return they had the [illegible] [illegible] and he could have nothing more [illegible] with them. In his own choice language he asked them to say to Mr Seymour and the whole New York World set that he had been informed they had been from the first secretly in favor of impeachment and now they might one and all "go to hell" as far as he cared, and with this the first interview ended. There have been several others, and, finally during last week these gentlemen reported here and in New York, that the President had been brought around, and would now help in the coming campaign. They made some grand promises, as they tell their friends, but their nature has not been ascertained. As an evidence that he really intends to support Seymour, the Democrats are trying to get the President to suspend Rollins and give the place to an avowed Democrat, who will use the whole of its patronage, as far as possible, to carry the close States.

DEATH OF MRS. TRUMBULL.

Mrs. Trumbull died this morning. Her remains will be taken to Illinois.

DOINGS OF THE KU KLUX IN TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 16.—Immediately after the adjournment of the Republican Convention of Tennessee, the Nashville Republican Banner, the organ of the bloody Ku Klux Klan, came out with a two-column editorial filled with the vilest abuse of Union men, and advocating universal and dead [illegible] proscription of all persons in the State who are in favor of sustaining the franchise law. Its criminal teachings have already begun to bear its legitimate fruit. At midnight, as I learn from a gentleman of high respectability, who arrived in this city to-day, a band of between 200 and 300 men masked and armed, and on horseback, entered the town of Franklin and commenced firing in the streets, driving several persons into their houses in terror and dismay. About thirty shots were fired. The streets were cleared, and the scoundrels were in possession of the town. They then proceeded to the home of a white Union man—Bierfield—and calling him out, shot him to pieces near his own door. It is said for killing him, they were overheard to give as their only reason for so doing, that he was a Radical and a demagogue who electioneered with the negroes. Their thirst for blood was not yet satisfied. They proceeded next to the house of a colored man, somewhat prominent as a leader among the negroes, and killed him in the same way. Then they fired a few shots at random and rode out of town. Franklin is thirty miles south of Nashville, on the Nashville and Decatur Railroad. It is the county seat of Williamson county, and is considered a centre of wealth, intelligence and refinement. The above account may be inaccurate in some particulars, but is substantially correct, as it was given by a prominent citizen of Franklin, who arrived in this place to-day.

THE NEW TAX LAW.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The section of the new tax bill prohibiting the distillation or rectifying of spirits in distilleries within six hundred feet of each other will involve several complicated legal questions as its operation will suppress some of the establishments so situated. Many of the largest distilleries are in that proximity.

Solicitor Binckley of the Internal Revenue Bureau, has transmitted to Commissioner Rollins an opinion on the subject of interpreting the law consistently with the above statement.

PAYMASTERS MUSTERED OUT.

The following named additional Paymasters of the army have been honorably mustered out and discharged on account of their services being no longer required: Brevet Lieutenant Colonel Thos. H. Gardner, Brevet Lieutenant Colonel W. S. Holt, and Brevet Lieutenant H. P. Malcom.

THE CAMPAIGN OF WISCONSIN.

MADISON, Aug. 17.—Reports from different parts of the States show that the Republicans are waking and organizing for the campaign, and that considerable numbers of voters, heretofore supporting the Democratic ticket, will vote for Grant and Colfax.

SEYMOUR AND DOOLITTLE ON THE STUMP.

[From the Chicago Tribune, August 1?.]

Horatio Seymour, in one of his speeches, said: "Since the close of the war in 1865 the Government has spent for its expenses, in addition to its payment on the interest or principal of the public debt, more than $1,000,000,000. Of this sum there has been spent nearly $800,000,000 on the army and navy for military purposes. This is nearly one third of the national debt. This was spent in times of peace."

The monstrous dishonesty of the statement is apparent from the fact that $547,688,000 were expended within the first few months after the war was closed in paying off the troops as fast as they were disbanded, that $50,000,000 of the remainder have since been paid to the soldiers in bounties, and $10,000,000 paid to the States to refund them their expenditures on account of the war.

GENERAL ITEMS.

It is claimed that no Presidential election can be held in Alabama for the reason that under the new constitution, there must be a registration before an election, and the Legislature adjourned without passing a Registry law.

Under a new rule of the Senate, all nominations not finally acted upon before an adjournment or recess for more than thirty days, are to be returned to the President, and not afterwards acted upon unless renewed at the next session. Several important nominations have been returned under this rule.

S. S. Cox, of Ohio, is to be the carpet bag candidate for Congress in the Sixth District of New York. The Tammany Democrats will run him.

Rev. Albert N. Fisher, formerly of Chenango county, New York, and a Gentile, lately preached at Brigham Young's Tabernacle at Salt Lake to 5,000 saints. He is the first Gentile who ever preached there by invitation of Brigham. His subject was the "Divinity of Christ."

Green Clay Smith of Kentucky, now Governor of Montana, is an applicant for the Alaska Collectorship.

The Wickedest Man in New York has suffered a relapse in his reformation. He requests, by advertisement, that no curiosity seekers call on him unless they wish to spend at least a one dollar bill at his bar. He may yet add to his present superlative distinction that of the Meanest Man of New York. His reformation and repentance seems to have been an advertising dodge.

On Seymour's remark that the officers of the Southern State governments can not live in the State they represent without military protection, the Times says: "As it is not claimed that this is because of any other crime than their devotion to the Union, it seems a little unfair for Governor Seymour to charge it as a crime upon the Union men of the South that the Ku Klux Klans and Democratic organizations stand ready to murder at sight. This is the old complaint of the wolf in the fable, that the lamb soils the stream."

Says the Natchez (Mississippi) Democrat: "If we have either to fight or to forget that there was a Runnymede, [ ] or a Sydney, or a Joanne d'Arc, or a Madame Roland, for God's sake, for the country's sake, and to show that Christ did not die in vain for the human race, let us prepare for it. Even if we must die let us die game! Thousands of our young men are too proud to work. Let them not be too proud to die if need be, for their country."

[illegible] for believing that Horatio Seymour was what his friends represented him to be, a devoted friend and supporter of the government during the war, is found in a volume of [illegible] hundred and [illegible] pages, published by [illegible] [illegible] defence of the South, by the Hon. Horatio Seymour, of New York."

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

DATES TO AUGUST 30

Southern Affairs.

ATLANTA, Aug. 31.—The Georgia Senate has unanimously passed a resolution authorizing the Governor to issue a proclamation disbanding armed assistance throughout the State. There are trained negro bands in many places in the country. They resisted the sheriff. The House discussed the question of the eligibility of negro members.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 31.—The Senate to-day ousted Jewell, Senator from the Second District Orleans parish, and installed a mulatto named Lineback. The ground of contest was fraud in the election witness upon whose testimony mainly the report of the election committee was based. His sworn affidavit, which was published, the committee found false from beginning to end, and that he had been influenced by promises of reward.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—In consequence of the reduction of the force of the naval engineers ordered by Congress, the appointment of cadets will be made from the naval academy this year.

The expenses of the various custom houses have been reduced a quarter of a million since the first of July.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The President has issued a proclamation announcing the ratification of the treaty with Nicaragua. Among other provisions, Nicaragua grants to the United States citizens and property the right of transit across the Isthmus on any route of communication, natural or artificial, by land or water, which may now or hereafter be constructed under authority of Nicaragua to be used and engaged in the same manner on equal terms to both, Nicaragua, however, reserving its right of sovereignty over the same.

It is estimated that the forthcoming statement of the public debt will show an increase of five or six million dollars. The army expenses have been very large, which, with the Alaska payment, will swell the total.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—A Frenchman, living on Pearl street, claims to have invented a flying machine which he propels against any current of air.

The Chinese Embassy will sail for Europe on the 9th of September.

The Express says warrants are issued by Commissioner Gutman for the arrest of prominent revenue officers at the instance of Solicitor Barclay, of the Treasury Department. Ex-Collector Smythe is in custody and under examination.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 1.—Senator Fessenden was warmly received here last night. At a mass meeting he made a lengthy address, in the course of which he said he was forced into the position of Secretary of the Treasury against his will and went in, because if he had not done so, it would have been considered a confession of his want of confidence in the ability of the Government to govern; he was in the tightest place he was ever in, except when obliged to vote to acquit the President.

Great Gathering of Union Soldiers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The Soldiers' and Sailors' National Executive Committee held a meeting at the Astor House to-day. They resolved to hold a grand monster mass Convention of Soldiers and Sailors at Philadelphia. That city is selected in recognition of the hospitality extended to soldiers and sailors there during the war. The Convention will be held October 1st and 2d. It is expected many thousand soldiers will be present, making one of the grandest demonstrations since the war.

Indian Disturbances.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—An official dispatch says Indians have driven off the wood choppers on the south side of Platte river, and on Saturday set fire to five to 5,000 cords of wood. Superintendent Denman denies that Red Cloud is coming down from the North. He says the hostilities are confined to the Cheyennes. The Sioux say they will not participate.

A Denver dispatch says a family named Neff, residing on Jennings' Camp road, were found murdered last Sunday.

Canada Matters.

MONTREAL, Sept. 1.—Placards are posted calling on Loyalists to suppress the contemplated Fenian picnic on Wednesday.

The ship Abeona has just made the passage between Quebec and Glasgow in fourteen days, the quickest time on record.

Quiet Restored in Arkansas.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 1.—The Democrat's Little Rock special says: Gov. Clayton has returned from Lewisburg. The insurrection is quelled and the Courts are reinstated. The difficulty was commenced by the rebels breaking up the Court with an armed force for discharging Union men. The latter soon collected 100 strong, took position in a cotton gin and whipped 300 rebels. Several of the latter are shot or missing. The Union men lost none. Gov. Clayton addressed the insurrectionists, advising them to disperse. Meanwhile the sheriff arrived with a posse 30 strong, and quiet was restored.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

PARIS, Aug. 31.—Gergendi, the Imperial envoy [extraordinary] from Madrid, arrived to-day and had an interview with the Emperor. It is rumored that the object of his mission is to bring about an agreement with the Emperor that in the event of an European war, Spain will send a fleet and troops to Rome, in return for which a French army shall be used to sustain the reigning dynasty in Spain should it be attacked.

HAMBURGH, Aug. 31.—Prince Napoleon arrived here on board his yacht. He has made visits to Altona and Lubec, and intends to sail this week for the Weiser. He preserves strict incognito ashore.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The following particulars of the events preceding the evacuation of Humaita by the Paraguayans are believed to be authentic. On the 16th of July the Marquis D'Caxias, commander of the allied forces, received information that the Paraguayans were leaving the fortress. He immediately ordered the advance of a column of about sixteen thousand men and they crossed the ditches and entered the enemy's lines and took possession of the redoubt. They were making preparations to occupy the rest of the works, when the Paraguayan troops opened fire which had a terrible effect on the allied columns, in its crowded and disordered condition. The Paraguayans then advanced on the Brazilians, jumping into redoubts and attacking them with bayonet. Meantime they kept up a sharp artillery fire on the column which had commenced to fall back—

The Contrast between the Government and its Creditors

The New York Journal of Commerce, an old line Democratic paper continues to expose the fallacies of the Democratic platform. It has published a series of powerful articles on the financial question which have attracted wide attention showing that nobody supposed while the debt was being created that it was to be paid in paper. That idea was an afterthought and an attempt to modify the original contract. The earliest five twenty bonds were authorized by the act of February 25, 1862. The same act goes on to say that the coin received for customs shall be set apart as a special fund first for the payment of the interest, and second for the redemption of the public debt. Here is a distinct and express recognition of the fact that the bonds were payable "in coin." There was no other provision made for the payment or redemption of either interest or principal than that found in the words, "in coin," deliberately introduced by Congress in the very act by which the five twenty bonds were created.

More than two years afterwards, namely on the 7th June, 1864, Mr Hooper of Massachusetts asked leave to introduce an act to authorize an additional issue of five twenties. Leave was granted and Hooper brought in his bill. Brooks (Democrat) of New York and Stevens, (Republican) of Pennsylvania, proposed to add to the bill an express provision that both the principal and interest of the bonds should be paid "in coin." Hooper replied that it was "unnecessary," as the Secretary of the Treasury had decided that all government bonds were so payable. Pruyn (Democrat) of New York then called out the letter of the Secretary and had it read, and with the full understanding by the whole House that the principal of the bonds as well as the interest, was payable "in coin," the amendment proposed by Brooks and Stevens was withdrawn and the bill finally passed. This history of the transaction clearly settles the case. The loans were advertised and negotiated, and the money lent, on the assurance given by this action of Congress. The Journal of Commerce, though a Democratic paper therefore repudiates the platform of its party, which is so widely at variance with the nature of the contract between the Government and its creditors.

Political Instructors.

A large number of ex-rebel officers are now journeying through the country for the purpose of teaching the people how to maintain the Constitution. Some of these gentlemen have paroles in their pockets, others have pardons which were kindly furnished them from the White House. With these documents to serve as passports and to attest their love and veneration for the country these individuals are traveling about and haranguing loyal men on the subject of their duty to the best Government the sun ever shone upon. This is a very interesting feature of the present political campaign. What could be more affecting, or effective, than to witness the zeal with which these friends and defenders of the Constitution labor to instruct loyal soldiers and citizens in their obligations to the Republic, and the course to be pursued to maintain and perpetuate it? There is a multitude of these paroled expounders of constitutional law, and Seymour and Blair have their service in every quarter of the country.

There may be those who think that these political instructors, being the subjects of the clemency of the Government which they have devoted the energies of the whole of their lives to destroy, might with decency and propriety remain silent at this time; but they who think in this way are evidently narrow-souled "Radicals," whose principal traits are malignancy and an unmanly desire of revenge. We ought to show a spirit of meekness by receiving the admonitions of these orators, by accepting their reproofs, and by submitting to their instructions. It will not do to intimate that the conduct of these teachers is unbecoming, to question their right to harangue loyal citizens upon their duty, or to suspect that they are not the men to whom the destinies of the nation ought to be intrusted. That is to say, such conduct would be very different from the "magnanimity" of our Democratic brethren. Peace can be had by granting what the gentlemen with paroles and pardons want; and yet the "Radicals," actuated by a spirit of vengeance which has no parallel, decline the offer!

A Fair Comparison

A Copperhead paper places in juxtaposition the names of the very few Union Generals who support Seymour and Blair, (among which the name of Rosecrans is wrongfully placed,) with the names of some who support Grant and Colfax. That the list may be made more complete, we beg to add the following names classified as they belong:

For Grant.	For Seymour
SHERMAN,	BEAUREGARD
SHERIDAN,	FORREST
THOMAS,	HAMPTON,
MEADE,	SEMMES
HOWARD,	LEE
HOOKER,	BUCKNER
GEARY,	BRECKINRIDGE,
FARRAGUT	TOOMBS.

Those in the left-hand column fought to maintain the integrity of the Union and accomplished it. Those in the right-hand column fought for slavery, disunion and Democratic principles. Which class are most worthy to be entrusted with the destinies of the country?

The Negro in the Bosom of the Democracy

The rebels of Tennessee have commenced setting up with the negro. In the Eighth (Memphis) District Congressional Convention, held at Brownsville on the 10th ult the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That if the freedmen of this State unite with the Democracy and by their votes secure the enfranchisement of the white men, who are now disfranchised, common justice and common gratitude demand that we should not disturb them in any rights they may now possess.

One delegate wanted to emphasize the if in the first line, and another wanted to strike out the word gratitude in the fifth line but the Convention insisted upon having the resolution in its original shape.

The San Francisco Examiner has an article on "The Hellish Despotism in the South," and the Red Bluff Sentinel, of similar politics, one on "Damnable Despotism." A certain class of journals seem to mistake profanity for point.

African Democracy

SOUTHERN REBELS BOAST THAT THE BLACKS WILL VOTE FOR SEYMOUR—COLORED SEYMOUR CLUBS AND BARBECUES—BLACKS AND WHITES ON THE SAME STUMP

The New York Herald publishes letters from Georgia dated early in August in which the most glowing accounts are given of the prospects of Seymour and Blair among the African Democracy of the South. These letters state that "free barbecues" are given under the management of the State Democratic Committee of Georgia at the rate of five or six every week, at which the negroes are toasted and feasted in bodies of from five to fifteen thousand strong. Negroes are wearing Democratic badges, and white and black speakers are delivering addresses from the same stump. The Herald's correspondents predict that a majority of the negroes in every Southern State will vote with the Democrats. We quote below one specimen resolutions adopted by the Democracy of the South and ask the reader to reflect and see which is the [illegible] equality party.

The Democratic Club of Washington, N. C. recently adopted the following resolutions which a paper of that city pronounces "excellent":

WHEREAS, The elective franchise is now exercised in North Carolina by all classes, with [illegible] distinction of race or color; and

WHEREAS, It is manifestly expedient and conducive to the success of the Democratic party in said State to increase its numbers by accessions from all classes of electors, therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That this club shall use every honorable means to influence colored electors of New Hanover county to become members of the great National Democratic party, and will, by facts and arguments, show them that it is to their interest to vote with the party that will sustain a constitutional government.

At a Democratic meeting held at Yazoo City last week among other resolutions adopted were the following:

1. As citizens of Mississippi we declare that it is our purpose to offer impartial suffrage to all men, irrespective of color, and to place all men on terms of equality before the law, so that life, liberty and property may be equally assured to all.

2. That our thanks are due to our colored friends who actuated by a sense of justice and patriotic duty, cooperated with us in the late election in defeating the oppressive and iniquitous constitution framed by strangers and common enemies to them and ourselves. They deserve well of the country, and their services will ever be gratefully appreciated by all men who have a due regard for equal rights and constitutional government.

3. That as an evidence of our feeling of [illegible] esteem and good will for them and the value of their noble aid in a just cause and patriotic principles, and as a further token of friendship and union in support of Democratic principles, we tender to them a public barbecue at this place on the fourth Saturday of August, 1868.

4. That such of our colored people who voted the Radical ticket or stood neutral and have since renounced and joined the Democratic party or now wish to [illegible] and all who entertain a friendly feeling for us and our cause are respectfully invited to meet and participate with us in said barbecue.

Mississippi journals state that the colored Mississippians since the late election, are going over en masse to the Democrats. In a single county, one thousand of them have produced certificates of membership in Democratic clubs. A millennium of good feeling between the races in Mississippi is dawning as the result of this state of things.

A number of Democratic negro clubs have been formed in Eastern Texas, and colored orators, it is stated, are doing efficient work among the freedmen. At a barbecue at Independence, Washington county, the Brenham Banner says there was at least three hundred negroes present who listened with great interest to the speeches, and many of them before leaving the ground, "declared their determination to adhere to their white Southern friends and vote the Democratic ticket." The Banner is convinced that with very little effort nine tenths of all the negroes in the State can be converted to the Democratic faith.

The Alexandria (Louisiana) Democrat says:

"It is no use any longer disguising the fact patent to all that the colored Democracy of Rapides is now a fixed institution, alive, wide awake, in real dead earnest, and with a local habitation and a name. Not content with the Lamothe barbecue they got up a ball—a rousing ball—on last Saturday night. They were gratified and honored by the proprietor of the Ice House placing at their disposal the fine and large ball-room in his hotel. We must candidly admit that this element of the Democratic party of Rapides is far ahead of any new organization we ever witnessed before, in our parish. Their ball was really well got up and a handsome affair."

The Herald's correspondents furnish columns of matter similar to the above. Isn't "Democracy" progressing? Which is the "white man's party?" While the Southern Democrats are "mixing in" with the negroes in this way, Northern Democrats continue to declaim against negro suffrage and inveigh against "nigger equality." Of course "Democratic principles" are the same everywhere.

STATE ITEMS

The oil mill at Salem has received some more machinery.

J. H. Foster & Co are rebuilding their flouring mills at Albany.

The district schools of Salem will commence next Monday.

The upper Willamette, the boatmen say, is lower than it was ever before known.

The farm house of Mr Sol. Durbin, about four miles east of Salem, was destroyed by fire on Saturday afternoon last. Loss about $1,000.

Says the Umatilla Press: The surveying schooner, in command of Lieut. Hour, passed up the river during the week, and is now on the Homily rapids.

The Unionist says: Last Saturday two or three hurdy gurdy girls came to this place from Portland, and commenced operations in a lager beer saloon on Commercial street. They attracted a large crowd.

B. F. Dowell, who has been absent at the East for nearly three years, has returned to his home at Jacksonville. He will have personal control of the Sentinel hereafter.

We learn that Mr. Dowell, who has just returned from Washington, is sanguine of the success of the railroad through this valley to the bend of the Humboldt at an early day, if proper steps are taken by ourselves to build it.

The Sentinel says that Hon. Isaac, of Josephine county, was detained on the 21st by a legal officer of that county. He and his horse and buggy were attached for a debt of twenty dollars, but the honorable gentleman slipped out of the dilemma by pleading that members of the Legislature are not subject to arrest on civil process for fifteen days prior to the commencement, or fifteen days after, nor during the session. The arrest was made more than fifteen days prior to the meeting of the Legislature, but he claimed that he was on his way there, and the Justice let him go on his way rejoicing. Ain't it funny to see an eminent Democrat, who has written a big book on the Constitution, plead the baby act for twenty dollars.

The difference between the Seymour party and the Grant party is this—when in 1864, the latter said "Carry on the war," the former said, "Stop it." Now, in 1868 when the latter says "Let us have peace," the Seymour Blair party calls out "Let us have war." The people who were for war in 1864 are for peace in 1868, and vice versa.

The New Haven Register says Seymour's letter on reconstruction "is unanswerable." So was the conundrum, "Why is a horse like an oyster," until some happened to think "neither of them could climb a tree."

Bath, Maine, has organized a Grant and Colfax Club. The call for the meeting was signed by 877 gentlemen, a number 177 larger than the whole Republican vote last fall.

Political Brevities

The World which is always abusing General Grant for not making speeches is now in mortal terror lest Frank Blair talk too much, and warns him that "a candidate who talks occupies in our critical period a dangerous position."

The Southern Democratic papers boast the "Stars and Bars" over the Democratic nominations. This is proper. Seymour will see stars before he gets through, and Blair knows already all the bars in the country.

The Bedford correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, writing from the Springs, states that [illegible] opinion now among the visitors at that famous watering place regards Grant's election as morally certain.

Was Seymour during the war a Union man or secessionist? Northern Democrats prate of his war record, while Southern Democrats claim him as the [illegible] of the lost cause, and support him because he always supported them.

An exchange says: "When Wade Hampton left Columbia at the approach of Sherman's army he announced that he was bound to Texas or hell." He didn't go to Texas but to the Democratic party. Hasn't he kept his word?

Democratic stumpers and editors tell us that the bonds are held by the rich while the poor pay the taxes. Seymour says the bonds have gone into the hands of innocent holders who, to a vast amount, are small property owners. It is a mistake to suppose that they are mostly held by the capitalists.

Hon. George M. Weston of Bangor, Maine, who was two years ago the Democratic candidate for Congress for the Fourth District of that State, has written a long and powerful letter repudiating Seymour and Blair. Weston is not ready to follow the revolutionary lead of the New York candidates.

At a Seymour and Blair ratification meeting at Atlanta, Georgia one of the speakers denounced the constitutional amendment as "prepared principally for the purpose of keeping out of office such gentlemen and true patriots as Howell Cobb, A. H. Stephens, Robert Toombs, B. H. Hill, John C. Breckinridge and Jefferson Davis."

The Chicago Tribune of August [illegible] says: "Chicago was jubilant and defiant last night. There was no mistaking the popular feeling. Chicago put on her brightest looks to celebrate the promise of peace and union which is contained in the nomination of Grant and Colfax. At [illegible] o'clock the streets and avenues leading from all the living parts of the city to the public square were thronged with pedestrians wending their way to the central point of meeting. The West Division even to the remotest boundaries of the city sent forth its thousands of earnest patriotic working men, resolved to give expression by their presence and their voice to devotion to the Union, and the liberty to be secured by the election of Grant and Colfax. The Thirteenth and Fourteenth Wards of the North Division alone sent more people to the Republican meeting last night than were assembled at the largest and most respectable Democratic meeting ever held in Chicago."

The St. Louis Democrat tells the following: General Grant was walking in Fourth street on Saturday when he was accosted by a prominent Democrat of the Copperhead persuasion as follows: "Ah, General you are looking well; I am glad to see that these rebels pitching into you don't wear you down much."

"No," the General quickly replied, "you rebels have been pitching into me for several years and it has not troubled me much."

"But during the war General we were divided; the War Democrats helped you. Now you have them all against you."

"Well, I think not. I think the real war Democrats are as much opposed to rebellion as they were during the war, and will vote as they fought, to sustain the Government and the laws."

The Copperhead walked away unhappy.

Mr A. P. Miller, of the Toledo Commercial, editor of the State Gazette at the time the Hon. J. B. F. Stevenson was a resident of [illegible] County, thus speaks of him in connection with his nomination for Congress in the Second District. "In nominating him, says Mr Miller, the Republicans have selected one of the most gifted men of the State. He is a natural orator with a genius for law and politics, and if elected will add another to the host of superior men whom Ohio has sent to manage the affairs of the nation. During the session of 1864-5 he served in the Ohio Senate with distinction. Some of his speeches which appeared in the Cincinnati papers during the war will be remembered as among the best which the contest elicited. There is good prospect, we judge, of Mr. Stevenson's election."

Albert Pike, editor of the Memphis Appeal, in a recent speech at Centre Hill, Mississippi urged the young men to swear that any Northern man attempting to cross the River to come Southward should not be allowed to live. In an article in his paper, the Memphis Appeal, of July 30, he tells the ex rebels: "Go on, boys, swear to murder Northern Huns! Arm yourselves and organize, and be ready to respond promptly when called on, and fight bravely, even if you get killed."

NATIONAL BUSINESS COLLEGE,
Portland, Oregon

The high and well established reputation of this School has attracted patrons and pupils from all parts of the North Pacific coast.

Day sessions continue without vacation, and students are admitted on any day in the year.

will open September 7th, and continue till May. They afford all the advantages of the regular Day Sessions and are designed especially for those who find it convenient to attend in the evening only.

Are You Bilious?—Multitudes of both sexes will answer this question in the affirmative, for, next to disorders of the stomach, liver complaint are perhaps the most prevalent of all internal diseases. Its usual symptoms are a yellowish tinge in the whites of the eyes, especially near the inner corners, an uneasy or slightly painful sensation in the side, pain between the shoulder blades, sick headache, lassitude, mental dullness, lack of appetite and irregularity of the bowels. Whoever recognizes this diagnosis applying to his own condition may be quite certain that more bile exists in his blood and less passes through his bowels than is expedient for his health, and that his liver requires toning and regulating. One of the special uses of

is to meet just such exigencies as this. Its tonic principle rouses the liver from its torpor, and its aperient element gently relieves the intestinal of the secretions consequent upon insufficient supply of nature's cathartic, the bile.

Persons of bilious habit will find it the best safeguard against the attacks to which they are constitutionally predisposed, and should carefully avoid all the ordinary alcoholic stimulants.

THE CHRONICLES.

And it came to pass in the third year of the reign of George the Third, who was ruler over the land of Webfoot, that the news went throughout all the land that KOHN & FISHEL at No. 91 Front street, Portland were selling Dry Goods and Clothing at fabulously low prices and all the people heard it and they straightway came unto that place and when they had demanded the price at KOHN & FISHEL'S store they marveled and said: The half has not been told us, for here we can buy all kinds of clothing and Dry Goods for ourselves, our wives and our little ones much cheaper than at any other place in all the land of Webfoot. And from that day even until now the people have come in great numbers to buy the goods of KOHN & FISHEL.

It was a Saying

Of Paley, a most distinguished writer, that he who is not a fool all the time is a fool [illegible] the time. This may or may not be true. We do know however that many are unwise or foolish who are suffering from dyspepsia and its kindred evils who do not try

IMPROVEMENT OF THE WILLAMETTE.—We are indebted to W. S. Ladd for the following [illegible] by Senator Corbett, containing the very [illegible] that an additional sum of [illegible] has been [illegible] to the credit of the Willamette river [illegible]

HEADQUARTERS CORPS OF [illegible]
WASHINGTON D. C., Aug. 3, 1868.
H. W. Corbett, Worcester, Mass.—
In reply to your letter to the Secretary of War, July 30 1868, you are informed that Col. W[illegible] of Engineers in charge of the improv[illegible] advised by telegraph from this office that [illegible] appropriation was attached to the im[illegible] of the Willamette river.
Yours respectfully,
WM. P. CRAIGHILL,
Major of Engineers, Bt. Lt. Col.
By command of Brig. Gen. Humphreys.

REPORTED SMALL POX CASE.—The case of [illegible] was reported to us on Tuesday as a new case of small-pox proved to have been of another [illegible] The [illegible] was about in the street yesterday. Everybody will, of course be rejoiced to hear that the first report was erroneous. The man who did have the small-pox and no [illegible] is said to be rapidly recovering and will very soon [illegible] It is to be hoped that no new case will [illegible] though should the city escape the [illegible] the fact will be attributable solely to a miracle of [illegible] and not by any means of anything done by the authorities.

HOW TO TREAT CHOLERA INFANTUM.—[illegible] of our exchanges contains a long article, said to have been written by a physician, on the treatment of Cholera Infantum. After giving a list of rules [illegible] lengthily explaining fully what to do and what not to do, the article concludes: "On the first [illegible] of the symptoms place the child under the care of a physician." [illegible] strikes us as invaluable advice and [illegible] importance of book learning. Who but a [illegible] man would have conceived the brilliant idea of calling for help in a case of need?

LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN.—Upon the arrival of the [illegible] yesterday afternoon, several [illegible] to the wharf to meet friends from Salem and [illegible] the upper Willamette, only however, to meet with disappointment. The officers of the Senator report that up to the time of leaving Oregon City, nothing had been seen or heard at Salem of the up river boats, this week. Whether they had been detained by a sand bar, by fog, [illegible] up the river, or were lost, or stolen, [illegible] unknown.

AN ELK AWAY FROM HOME.—On Sunday last as Mr. [illegible] and Dr. Wilcox were coming down the Canyon [illegible] they saw at a short distance an elk which was evidently away from home without its mamma's knowledge. [illegible] discovering these two gentlemen, the elk [illegible] up the mountain side and disappeared. The presumption is that it had been finding its [illegible] not for comfort and had emigrated to the valley with [illegible] being thoroughly posted as to the advantages [illegible] here for a permanent elk settlement.

RAILROAD BRIDGE.—Mr. S. [illegible] the contractor, has [illegible] work on the heavy trestle bridge at the upper end of Fourth street [illegible] which the West Side Railroad is to [illegible] This is to be an immense structure [illegible] five feet in height [illegible] and to consist of [illegible] The bridge across the [illegible] by the contractors, [illegible] formally received by [illegible] Railroad Co [illegible]

OUR CITY AND COUNTY GOVERNMENT.—The following petition is being circulated in this city and county for signatures

To the Honorable Members of the Senate and Legislature of the State of Oregon—Your petitioners would respectfully represent that they being opposed to the heavy and ruinous taxation, carried on by the support of a separate government of the city of Portland and believing that a consolidation of the government of the city of Portland with that of the County of Multnomah on an economical and judicious basis would greatly reduce taxation retrench expenses and promote the general good of the community We therefore pray your Honorable Body to pass such law as the necessity of the case requires to effect the above named purposes

The subjoined remarks on the above project have been furnished us, as expressing the views of the petitioners for consolidation

The benefits to the tax payers resulting from such acts are readily be perceived by glancing at the financial history of San Francisco before the consolidation act which took effect on the 1st day of July, 1856, and since that time From the Directory of 1862 we take the following statistics

BEFORE CONSOLIDATION

Fiscal year	City	County	Total
1850—51	$1 6[illegible]	$115 198	$1,813 447
1851—52	340 [illegible]	115 704	456 331
1852—53	718 302	202 727	1,009 029
1853—54	1 140 792	141 033	1,281 825
1854—55	1 167,2[illegible]7	478 963	2,646 190
1855—56	525 643	330 487	856 130
	$4 88[illegible] 041	1,727 902	$8,612 943

AFTER CONSOLIDATION

1856—57			$ 354 202
1857—58			366 427
1858—59			480 890
1859—60			708 [illegible]19
1860—61			702 125
1861—62			511 896
1862—63			437 734
Total			$3 660 088

Thus we see that in the six fiscal years prior to the consolidation the expense of carrying on and maintaining the dual system amounted to the enormous sum of eight million six hundred and twelve thousand nine hundred and forty-three dollars The people groaning under the burden of taxation, appealed to the Legislature for amendments to their City Charter and other local laws which were amended and repealed and re-enacted over and over again but all to no purpose All action failed to check the career of reckless extravagance that rapidly dissipated the wealthy estate which had belonged to San Francisco, as well as bequeathing a debt which amounted to several million dollars

The average yearly expenditure before the consolidation was one million four hundred and thirty thousand four hundred and ninety dollars, and that, too, when the city was small, in its infancy as it were, and during which time there were no considerable amount of public buildings or improvements; whilst the average yearly expenditure from the time of consolidation up to 1862,—a period of seven years—was only five hundred and twenty five thousand, seven hundred and twenty-seven dollars, or about thirty five per cent, showing a reduction of nearly sixty five cents on the dollar. These figures may seem to those who are not posted in the financial history of San Francisco, erroneous, and to such as may desire further authority, we refer to the statistics published in the San Francisco Directory of 1862, page 11 Now if consolidation proved such a blessing to the tax payers of San Francisco may we not hope for a like result for Portland?

There is one idea that seems to pervade every mind, and that is that our charter our government our financial affairs are in a horrible and disastrous condition Nearly all are anxious for a safe change, and all are satisfied that it would be next to impossible to make the matter any worse Hence nearly every man is signing the petition The property holder and those who do not own property all pray for a change, and I would say that I think they should have it

It would certainly be cheaper to carry on one government than it is two We would then have no use of paying but one assessor; we now pay two One Treasurer would safely keep all the moneys that would at any one time be in the Treasury Fifteen hundred a year would be saved in the clerkship, and in almost every department a saving of at least fifty per cent We have a court house ample and sufficient for a council chamber, city hall, &c, without ever interfering with the workings of the Circuit Court Our city jail is now in a wretched condition We have an ample and commodious county jail, which would save the expense of building a new one for the city If the city government should be still carried on as heretofore a new one must be built.

All the criminal business of the city could be done by one Police Court, at an expense of $2,000 per year, and everything in about in the same ratio

This is a question which meets the serious consideration of every tax payer and if the matter can be reached by such means, the Legislature in its coming session will no doubt be ready to pass such law as will meet the wishes of the people!

ORO FINO THEATER —Oro Fino Hall is undergoing just now a very considerable transformation, the proprietors, Messrs. Lappeus & Knowles, having determined to convert it into a theatre The audience room remains as before, but the stage has been altogether remodeled and enlarged It extends now to the rear end of the building, a depth of twenty seven feet, with the same breadth as the front of the old stage. The partitions of the old dressing rooms have been taken out and the spaces formerly occupied by them are added to the stage, and will be used for the purpose of wings. An extension of twenty feet in the rear of the building is now in course of construction This will be used for green room dressing room, property room etc The stage will be furnished with all the usual [illegible], and will have entirely new scenery The scene painter is expected on the steamer now due. He will set to work at once, and it is expected that everything will be in [illegible] within the next fifteen days. Mr Bates, who has for a long time had the management of the Metropolitan Theater in San Francisco, has leased Oro Fino and will have a stock company here on the next steamer Thus it will be seen that we are soon to have a theatre here, quite as respectable in point of convenience, comfort and fittings as any on the coast. We are certain that the theatre-going public will appreciate its existence and that Messrs Lappeus & Knowles will not have occasion to regret their additional expenditure upon the building RAILROAD EXPLORATION —It has been heretofore stated that Gen. Dodge had started from Salt Lake to make a tour of observation to Oregon, in the interest of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and it has been generally understood that he would arrive by way of Boise and the Columbia river—the supposed route of the talked-of branch railroad The Salt Lake Telegraph, however, noticing the departure of his escort says "Gen Dodge's escort, Company I, 2d Cavalry, commanded by Captain E. R Wells with twenty four wagons, left Camp Douglas this morning [Aug 18th] for the sinks of the Humboldt Thence they will proceed to Portland, Oregon The command looked well and the animals were in fine condition—they need to be, to stand a long tramp through such a country General Dodge, we understand, leaves to-morrow " So it would seem that Gen Dodge may be looked for via Southern Oregon It is not, however, probable that the Union Pacific Co., can have any intention of constructing a branch to reach Oregon by any other than the Columbia river route Gen Dodge, it is most likely, will come in by the southern route for the purpose of learning more thoroughly the resources of all Oregon.

BOY DROWNED —A little boy of some ten years, the son of a Mr Woodward, as we are informed, was drowned yesterday afternoon in the river opposite the upper part of the city He was seen playing on some floating logs, and a few minutes afterwards he was missing Though no one saw him fall into the water, it is almost certain that he did fall, as his hat was found floating on the surface near where he had been at play Mr Cardwell who reached the place shortly after the alarm was given, stripped and dived in search of the body, but was unable to find it When we last heard from there, parties were engaged in dragging, but without success.

A NOTED DIVINE COMING.—It is understood that Rev J A Daly, a brother of William Daly, of this city, is a passenger by the Oriflamme now due Mr Daly is a graduate of Andover College has traveled extensively in Europe, Asia and Africa, was a chaplain in the army of the Potomac has since the war lectured on travels in the Holy Land and has received therefor very complimentary notices from the leading press of California A member of the Congregational church to which faith Mr Daly is attached, informs us that while here, he will deliver one or two lectures on travels These will be likely to be very interesting and attractive

SPECIAL SALE OF FANCY GOODS.—Richardson has a special sale, this morning of fancy, goods, at the store of A G Randall corner First and Alder streets The stock, consisting in considerable part of books, stationery musical instruments cutlery sewing machines, and fancy goods of great variety, are to be closed out.

BROUGHT DOWN —A man named Orchard, but who has an alias, was arrested at the Cascades on Tuesday, on a charge of stealing money from a cyprian on Second street and was brought back to Vancouver yesterday by the Sheriff of Skamania county, by whom the arrest was made

MCMINNVILLE WATER WORKS COMPANY —The directors of the McMinnville Water and Manufacturing Company met at McMinnville last Tuesday, and organized according to law, by electing J C. Ainsworth President and W T Newby Secretary

BLIND TROUPE.—The agent of the Blind Troupe, which has been traveling from the southern part of the State hitherward, arrived last evening, and informs us that the troupe will given performance in this city Saturday evening next

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his production the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here, and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day it sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE This fraud can be easily detected by a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice

GENERAL CHEATHAM [illegible] TO THE [illegible] EVENTS

At the recent conference of ex-rebel Generals with the Military Committee of the Tennessee Legislature, General [illegible] behalf [illegible] all through the war. When [illegible] felt as if the [illegible] had ceased to [illegible]. When there was no [illegible] which he had carried [illegible] He had tried to keep [illegible] the letter [illegible] had stayed on his farm attended to his own business and scarcely comes to town once a year. He lived in peace with all mankind and recognized and obeyed all the laws which [illegible] preceding Legislature had passed [illegible] He felt that it was his duty to do so. He staid so closely on his farm that he did not know until recently the excited condition of the public mind. When he was met on the street by General Maney who wished to talk with him on this subject he told his old champion that he had come to the city to get a piece of machinery repaired, and that if he wanted to talk with him he must walk with him to the foundry [illegible] street. General Maney did so and then related to him the condition of the public mind in Davidson county and other parts of the State. He told General Maney that if such was the case he would let [illegible] and all other business go and come to the city the following day. This interview took place some days ago. Since that time he had been corresponding with all the leading Confederate General officers of this State on the subject. To-morrow (to-day) he expected that thirteen of these officers would be in the city. Eleven of them he expected would give pledge to use their united efforts with himself and associates to suppress all resistance to the laws and civil officers and to check all depredations committed by lawless bands. General Johnston, General Maney and himself, were ready to forsake all private business and to take the stump among their old soldiers, to fulfill the pledges made believing that the men who had fought so well would still listen to their old officers. The trouble was not with the men who went out to fight for principles in which they believed, but it came from home Generals who were always making trouble.

THE OFFICE OF VICE PRESIDENT.—The N. Y. Evening Post comes out in favor of abolishing the office of Vice-President. It says:

The Vice-President under the Constitution, is, while the President continues in office, merely the presiding officer of the Senate, of which body he is yet not a member. His position is an anomaly. It is in practice the prize of small politicians, men who are put on a ticket to conciliate their friends or to make a good party cry, but seldom because they are believed to be fit for the succession or capable to exercise wisely the Presidential office. The Vice-Presidents who have chanced to administer the Presidential office have been anything but a blessing to the country.

Mr Ashley remarks very truly that the Vice-Presidency is now in general used to conciliate the favor of a defeated candidate for the Presidential nomination, and he adds what it is important to remember, that the candidates for President and Vice President commonly belong to opposite factions in the same party and often represent antagonistic ideas. The abolition of the office of Vice-President would be, it is clear, a useful change, and if Mr Johnson's proposed amendments were likely to attract attention and be acted upon we should wish that he would include this among them.

The New York Nation, an independent, "conservative" paper, speaks in this way of the approaching election: Mr. Seymour cannot be elected, for the simple [illegible] that he will get no votes worth mentioning, except from the regular Democratic party, and the next election is notoriously to be decided by the [illegible] of lukewarm Republicans. But if other [illegible] were [illegible] for his defeat, they may be [illegible] in the fact (highly creditable to him) that [illegible] the enthusiasm of the [illegible] who are [illegible] interested in effecting a covert [illegible]diation of the national debt than in any other [illegible] of the day. He is the chief of that wing of the party which has all along opposed such schemes. He is well known to be in favor of a return to specie payments. He lives in the midst of a community which would be ruined by national repudiation. The savings-banks of this State are alone a guaranty that Horatio Seymour can never consent to a breach of the public faith. His assent to the platform makes no difference. Every repudiator instinctively feels that he can receive no practical aid from the favorite of New York bankers, the intimate friend of Belmont, the relentless opponent of Pendleton.

The Buffalo Commercial, speaking of Horatio Seymour, says: "The late Dean Richmond, the Warwick of the Democracy in this State thoroughly disliked him, couldn't speak of him without evincing a sturdy disgust for the two faced demagogue. He's a humbug, boys, a d—d humbug,' the Dean was wont to say, when talking with those who possessed his confidence. "Don't bet your money on him, boys," says Richmond to his Central Railroad army, in the campaign four years ago, in which Seymour was defeated, and ran largely behind his ticket."

The London Spectator, of July 25, says: "We never remember to have read American documents which puzzled us so entirely as the Democratic 'platform,' and the report of the meeting by which that platform was accepted. They read as if the Democrats had lost their senses altogether, had degenerated from a great party into a mere faction too hopeless of success to care for anything except the programme which should most fully defy and irritate their antagonists."

Speaking of the recent attempts of Democratic rowdies and ruffians to break up the Republican meeting in California, the Oakland News says: It is a notorious fact, that in the early days of the Republican party in this State, no man could venture to make a Republican speech in any public place without exposing himself to the risk of insult and outrage.

The Columbus Journal says: "The last act of the rebels before the war was to vote the Democratic ticket. The first act of the rebels after the war was to vote the Democratic ticket. As there was but one step from Democracy into rebellion, there was but one step from rebellion back into Democracy."

The Rebel Democracy of New Orleans are said to be well armed and thoroughly drilled, and it is added that they intend to carry Louisiana for Seymour and Blair, to use their own language, "if they have to kill every nigger on the soil." Gen Hays, of riot notoriety, is their leader.

At the preliminary meeting of the "Tanners Club," at Rock Island, Illinois, a large flag was suspended across the rear of the hall, and over it a fine ox hide, with the name "Seymour" written across it in large letters. Under [illegible] was the imprint, "U. S. Grant, Tanner."

The graceful amenities of political discussion are carefully observed by Brick Pomeroy, who calls an offending editor a "swill-headed chunk," to which the latter replies by dubbing Pomeroy a "Pandemoniac paste-pot-gut throat."

Every negro becomes "intelligent," "moral," "refined" and "white," the moment he votes the Democratic ticket, and can eat dinner with white Democrats at a political barbecue, the same as they did recently in Mississippi.

A vault fifty feet deep, twenty-five feet wide and twenty feet high, has been excavated in East Rock, near New Haven, as a receptacle for lager bier.

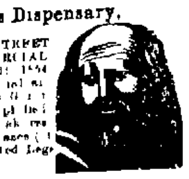
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there [illegible] all existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from the virus absorbed into the system. [illegible] and disfigured faces or [illegible] broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life [illegible] and drag out their existence until death [illegible] Let parents, guardians, friends attend [illegible] those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it is too late. Send them immediately to Dr. Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his specialty for [illegible] years around [illegible] certain to cure them [illegible] without mercury or any injurious drugs. [illegible] to those who are afflicted [illegible] welfare of their friends [illegible] skill [illegible] doctors who [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days [illegible] public by using the names of eminent physicians in [illegible] European [illegible] Be therefore careful [illegible] strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequences of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn-to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, painted [illegible] letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

 IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED, UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 18[illegible] and which have done so [illegible] to secure the reputation of [illegible] Institute, are still adhered to [illegible] affording those in need [illegible] medical aid, the certainty [illegible] cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and [illegible] give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully [illegible] attention of those of [illegible] who are suffering or [illegible] to the invariable success [illegible] has marked the career of [illegible] Institute in the [illegible] of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all [illegible] complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor [illegible] his duty to call especial [illegible] tion to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with [illegible] sidiousness the very life of [illegible] victims, in the treatment [illegible] cure of which the Institute [illegible] earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ

I am aware that by dwelling upon so [illegible] ject as the decay of manly vigor the [illegible] vital principle of life, the ignorant may [illegible] but the design is to point out to them [illegible] guish and decay, the true cause of their [illegible] great an incentive to be forced into [illegible] tended the terrible disease of Semi[nal] [illegible] one but the practical specialist who [illegible] treatment can tell, but its process can [illegible] the most inexperienced by noting the [illegible] toms. Weakness of the back and [illegible] feelings, loss of muscular power, nervous [illegible] cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot [illegible] of consumption, short breath, flushings of the [illegible] sion to society, confusion of the mind [illegible] nightly emissions, colorless, slight [illegible] least excitement, trembling, palpitation of [illegible] regular appetite, variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the symptoms enumerated above, pause to [illegible] at in the golden moment in which you [illegible] health and happiness. You may feel [illegible] you have ever practiced the vice of self-[illegible] [illegible] you have the seeds of a [illegible] system and their undermining [illegible] or later dash the fair edifice of your strength [illegible] ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being [illegible] disease that declares itself at once. [illegible] est danger, for while the patient is being [illegible] affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain or [illegible] tions, he sinks [illegible] general debility that [illegible] to the list of the victims of the terrible [illegible] Weakness.

See in the bent form and languishing [illegible] victim of the fascinating vice. Mark the [illegible] dest active complaint in the hollow cheek and [illegible]

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory symptoms [illegible] first it is easily shaken off, but it grows [illegible] great disinclination to pursue his regular [illegible] mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights [illegible] days of depression.

It is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] changes that leave the poor victim but little hope [illegible] covery. In a single instant it may wither [illegible] hopes and blast your honest aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse [illegible] life. This is an error of the first magnitude [illegible] tem unprepared for the exigencies of the [illegible] dently fails, and he finds himself in a dungeon [illegible] from which there is but the slightest hope of [illegible] Or if the marriage should result in offspring [illegible] ny distorted, decrepid and deg[illegible] ble to both sexes, whether married or [illegible] times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the [illegible] rible complaint, or if your acts have been [illegible] to them, but by instant application [illegible] only hope of health and happiness. The [illegible] mercury or other deleterious drugs [illegible] time always guaranteed, and full and [illegible] stored.

The afflicted are assured of every con[illegible]

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH [illegible] NEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the [illegible] the Institute, the number of cases of V[illegible] been treated show a record unsurpassed by [illegible] in the world, and the success that has [illegible] the course of treatment

Without Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be [illegible] called for, but act[ua]lly dangerous, for it is [illegible] established medical principle, that those poisons [illegible] by entering the blood ruin the constitution [illegible] life.

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases [illegible] and finds no difficulty in curing those of [illegible] without submitting the patient to such treatment [illegible] draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or [illegible] neglect his business whether in-doors or [illegible] diet need not be changed. Cures always [illegible] no pay required.

EXTINGUISHER
SELF ACTING FIRE ENGIN[E]

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT T[HE] extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous m[anner] than has hitherto been discovered.

The advantages to be derived from the use of the [EX]TINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and [un]controllable increase is owing to the fact that at the t[ime] of its commencement, when every moment's delay [in] checking it is of the utmost importance, no means [are] ready at [hand].

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills [the] requirement.
